

MAX-PLANCK-GESELLSCHAFT

Symposium on the Occasion of Fritz Haber's 150th Birthday

10 December 2018, Harnack House, Berlin

14:00 - 14:05

Robert Schlögl (Fritz Haber Institute):

Welcome

14:05 - 14:30

Bretislav Friedrich (Fritz Haber Institute):

'Who Was Fritz Haber?' -- A Biographical Summary

14:30 - 15:15

Deri Sheppard (University of South Wales):

'An ideal partnership:' Haber, Le Rossignol and the ammonia synthesis. A retrospective.

15:15 - 16:00

Jan Willem Erisman (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam):

How 110 years of ammonia synthesis changed the world food production and environment

16:00 - 16:40

Coffee Break

16:40 - 17:25

Margit Szöllösi-Janze (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität):

Science at War: Fritz Haber and the German Chemical Industry, 1914-1918

17:25 - 18:10

Stefan L. Wolff (Forschungsinstitut, Deutsches Museum):

Haber as a Jewish German Patriot – from Baptism to Zionism

Moderation: Gerard Meijer (Fritz Haber Institute)

18:15 - 19:45

Reception